Ben McAdams is New State Senator
Wins on the First Ballot

SALT LAKE CITY (December 19, 2009) – The delegates residing in the 2nd Senate District met today to choose a successor to Sen. Scott McCoy, who resigned his seat earlier this month. The four candidates were Arlyn Bradshaw, Ben McAdams, Brian Moss, and Mark Towner. Ben McAdams received more than the 60% needed on the first ballot and thus is the new State Senator for the 2nd District.

Immediately after the election results were announced, Salt Lake County Democratic Party Chairman Weston Clark stated “Ben will make a great Senator for the 2nd District and, as one of his constituents, I look forward to working with him during this important upcoming legislative session. He will represent the Democratic Party well and be an effective advocate for his district.”

With the vacant seat filled, the Salt Lake County Democratic Party is working on planning the precinct caucuses for March 23rd, when all the delegates for the Democratic Party within the county will be up for election. The County Convention will be held on April 24th at West High School. More information on this process can be found on our website at www.slcountydems.com.
